REGARDING OPENING OF MOVIES ON SUNDAY.

There is a growing sentiment in Paris in favor of opening the movie picture houses on Sunday afternoon, and, as a matter of course, there will be protests against such proceeding. THE NEWS has heard in the past few days unqualified endorsement of the project, from citizens who are in favor of allowing free Americans to choose their form and time of entertainment.

Lexington movie houses make a strong bid for patronage of Paris people by advertising on the screen at the Paris Grand and the Alamo, the pleasures to be derived from spending a Sunday afternoon in the Lexington movie picture houses. Why not permit Paris people to spend an enjoyable two hours on Sunday afternoon in their own home town in an innocent amusement?

The plea is made in favor of permitting the Sunday afternoon opening that it would afford a chance for entertainment for the workmen who spend six days a week at their labor and who are generally too tired at night to visit the movies, Sunday being their only day for recreation, an hour or two at the movies in the afternoon would constitute a diversion for them.

In speaking of the matter, a Paris business man said to THE NEWS man: "I go to church every Sunday morning and evening, and really enjoy it. My conscience would not hurt me in the least by attending a moving picture program in the afternoon, as I can see absolutely no harm in thus spending an hour or two. And I believe hundreds of other Paris people hold this same opinion."

The matter as yet has not taken concrete form, and the city authorities have not been approached in regard to it. The suggestion has merely been made that the Sunday afternoon opening would be pleasing to a large number of workers who are liberal in their views, and who believe they ought to have the same chance that Lexington, Louisville, Covington, Newport, Frankfort and other places have.

THE AMERICAN LEGION INAUGURATES CAMPAIGN

The American Legion intends to make a country-wide campaign from February 1 to February 22 for members. In accordance with this program the Bourbon Post, of Paris, will push the campaign to the limit of the ability of the present small membership.

It cannot be too heartily impressed on the ex-service man in the county that there is no military obligation connected with the Americans who served their country in the great war and still have work to do in peace; work that will benefit their communities fully as much as it will benefit the members. The creed of the Legion is the very epitome of an untainted Americanism. No man who lives up to that creed can be other than a good citizen. The enemies of the United States are not all dead, and they are not all in chains. The American Legion is the best and strongest force in existence to combat the unpatriotic.

If you are a former sailor, soldier, or marine, and read this, make it your business to be present at the meeting to be held in the court house at 7:30 o'clock, on Friday night, February 6. Give a hand in the good work. The Legion needs you and you need the Legion. If you who read are a relative of one of those who wore the khaki or the blue—and there are few who have not such a relative—bring this to his attention and ask him to make it his business to attend. This body deserves the support of every good American in the county.

"FRIVOLITIES OF 1920" AT GRAND SATURDAY.

With the incomparable funny comedian, Billy Clark, and the fascinating Ruth Goodwin in one of the leading roles, "The Frivolities of 1920," which has taken Lexington theatre-goers by storm, will be the attraction at the Paris Grand Opera House, next Saturday night, February 7.

Capacity houses have greeted every performance of this company in Lexington, and the press notices from such able critics as Enoch Grehan, of the Lexington Herald, and John Marsh and James M. Ross, of the Lexington Leader, put the gilded stamp of approval on the company and their productions. Sharing honors with the principals is Miss Victoria, Oliver Adams, Patsy Shelley, Lilly Lewis, Peggy Lathrop, Gladys Bagley, and many others, whose names have become familiar ones to the theatre-goers. Catherine Schultz, ingenue, has a fine voice, and is making a hit with her songs. The Grecian dances rendered by Tanya Kuprin, also make a big hit with the audiences.

The Frivolities Company comes highly recommended for pure worth, and should be greeted with a large and representative Bourbon county audience. As the name indicates, it is an amusement and fun producer, pure and simple, and makes no pretensions to being anything else. At The Paris Grand next Saturday night, February 7.

CHURCH PEOPLE GET BUSY DIGGING.

Improvements estimated to cost approximately $7,000, have been planned and will be made to the Paris Baptist church, the weather permitting. The improvements have been made necessary by reason of an increased attendance in the Sunday School, necessitating more rooms.

A new Sunday School room with a capacity of two hundred, in the basement will be added to the church, in order to take care of the overflow from the main room. Armed with picks and shovels about twenty members of the church, under the direction of Rev. Arthur Fox, pastor of the church, have been busy doing the excavating for the new addition. Coffee, pies and sandwiches are served the workers by the women of the congregation. The work is being vigorously prosecuted each day from six o'clock to nine in the evening.

TO RECOVER MACHINE STOLEN IN PARIS.

The automobile belonging to the late Elmer Myers, of Paris, which was stolen in Lexington several months ago, has been located in Cincinnati. Mrs. Myers went to that city last week and identified the machine.

Mr. Myers and a party of friends attended a theatrical performance in Lexington, leaving their machine parked on a side street. When they came out the auto was missing. The police were informed, as well as the Paris police. Chief of Police Fred Link received information that the machine had been located in Cincinnati. He visited Cincinnati and partly identified the machine as Mr. Myers', Mrs. Myers' completing the identification.

Miss Daniel was thrown against the steering wheel by the force of the collision. Her nose was broken and she sustained slight bruises, none of a serious nature. The car was badly damaged. Miss Daniel was removed to her home on Fifteenth street, where her injuries received attention.

There is not a case of either disease in the building or among the students. There are 103 boys boarding in the building now, as the day pupils have been provided rooms, so there will be no danger from that source. There is a well-equipped hospital and a trained nurse in charge, and everyone will have the best of care. The M. M. I. was quarantined last year against the influenza and had no cases of that malady among the students.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED IN BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

A suit has been filed in the Bourbon Circuit Court by Attorney Denis Dundon, representing Wm. H. Whaley, Jr., of Paris, against Wm. A. Hamlen, representing Julius Kessler & Co., of Louisville, for $10,000 damages, for alleged non-fulfillment of a contract of sale.

The plaintiff in his petition alleges that, on January 26, 1920, the defendant sold to him for $13,000, the property known as the Walsh distillery containing about ten acres of ground, located on the North Middletown pike, near Paris. He alleges that a contract was executed and delivered to him, the money to be paid in cash on receipt of deed to the property. It is further claimed that the defendant has refused and failed to deliver the property to the plaintiff, and that at the present time it is valued at about $23,500. The plaintiff therefore asks for damages in the sum of $10,000, with interest and proper relief.

In connection with the above public announcement has been made that Wm. A. Hamlen, representing Julius Kessler & Co., had sold the above-mentioned property to Carl Wilmoth, and his sister, Mrs. Robt. Goggin, both of Paris, for a sum said to be in the neighborhood of $15,000. It is said that negotiations are under way to resell the property to a manufacturing company in the East, who will erect a branch establishment on the site.

to J. W. Kenton, of Nicholas county, his home on West Eighth street, for $4,000. Mr. Martin has purchased the home of Mrs. Pearl Cram, located on Walker avenue, and will occupy it. The same agency sold to R. Hammons, of the county, the A. Adam cottage, located on Nineteenth street, at a private price, for possession in March.

George D. Speakes, auctioneer, of the real estate firm of Harris & Speakes, of Paris, conducted the public sale Friday of the Kirtley Shropshire farm in Scott county, for the sales agents, C. E. Buckley, T. C. Geary and Chas. Connors, of Lexington. The farm was sold in five tracts, for a total of $151,000, an average of $247 an acre for the 625 acres. The five tracts sold as follows: Tract No. 1, 192 acres, to W. B. Harp, for $57,057; Tract No. 2, 169 acres, to Orville Rankin, for $41,418; Tract No. 3, 46 acres, to H. L. Hart, for $13,510; Tract No. 4, 98 acres, to W. E. Coleman, for $22,087; Tract No. 5, 137 acres, to Stuart Urmon, for $20,510. The sale was extensively advertised in THE BOURBON NEWS.

Harold Hill, of Millersburg, purchased last week, through the E. M. Thomason Real Estate Agency, of that city, seventy-five acres of unimproved land, lying on the Arderly pike, belonging to J. M. Mason, for $20,000. Mr. Hill will get possession in March.

Matt Lair and J. J. Haggard purchased of Clarence Wright, one hundred acres of unimproved land, a part of the Ogden farm, lying on the Paris and Clintonville pike, near Paris, for $425 an acre. The new owners will subdivide the tract and sell it in small farms at public sale soon.

William Lyle, as agent for the owners, sold to Carl Wilmoth and others the old Walsh distillery property, located on the North Middletown pike, near Paris, for about $10,000. It is said that the owners will raise the buildings and dispose of the lumber. The grounds and the other buildings on the place will be sold.

The handsome city home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kenney Nichols, at the corner of High and Thirteenth, advertised in THE NEWS to be sold at public sale, Saturday afternoon, was offered and withdrawn. The highest bid reached was that of $6,225, made by Richard H. Willis, of Paris. Unless sold privately the property will probably be offered again at public sale.
